P. C. Loses Turkey-Day Game.

In a fast and hard fought game, Pacific University defeated Pacific College at Forest Grove on Thanksgiving Day. Although outplayed by a faster team, the Quakers played desperately and fought till the last whistle blew.

In the first quarter, P. C. made her best showing, holding P. U. scoreless. P. C. recovered their own punt which was fumbled by P. U. and later worked a successful forward pass for a good gain but were unable to score.

In the second quarter, two touchdowns were made by P. U. In the third quarter, P. U. came back strong, rushing P. C. off their feet and carrying the ball across for long gains. In the fourth period, Lucas made a sensational 75 yard return of the kickoff. Later, he carried the ball over for a touchdown, making the score 47 to 0.

For Pacific College, Replogle made most of the yardage and Colcord ran the team well. Goodman, Tupper and Ireland starred for P. U.

Fern refereed very satisfactorily; Austin, umpire.

Trefians.

The program at the Trefians Wednesday, November 18, was opened with a reading by Luella Beals. This was followed by a heated debate on the question, "Resolved: that the policy of armed peace should be superceded by mutual dissarmament." Alta Gumm and Belle White upheld the affirmative and May Moore and Mary Pennington the negative. The affirmative recieved the decision of the judges. The last number of the program was a clever musical stunt by Miss Lewis, Helen Ellis and Henrietta Welch.

Frost!

The Y. W. C. A. meeting was in charge of Rev. and Mrs. Frost. Rev. Frost's talk on "Choosing the better part," was very helpful. We enjoyed the Frosts very much and hope they can come again sometime.

The Thanksgiving meeting was led by Chas. O. Whiteley. As is always the case when he is present, it was an excellent meeting. He impressed the thought that "thanksgiving" and "thanksgiving" should go hand in hand.

CAPTAIN BENSON

Y. M. C. A.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting Wednesday, November twenty-fifth being the day just preceding Thanksgiving was very appropriately a Thanksgiving meeting. Professor Spahr was the leader of the meeting.

A number of the Academy men are expecting to attend the Boy's Conference at McMinnville, Oregon, November 27-29.

Sailor Boy's Concert a Success.

The entertainment put on Friday evening, Nov. 20., in Wood-Mar Hall was declared to be well worth the price, by all who were present. This was the second of a series of entertainments to raise money for a Grand Piano given by the School of music assisted by the Literary Societies.

The Agoreton Society had charge of the sale of tickets and the boys did very efficient work, over $30. being cleared.

The jolly tars in sailor costume sang several rollicking selections which were well received. The last of these, "The Pirate King," featuring Prof. Hawkins in the stellar role, was very realistically rendered. The program closed with a stunt given by the Agoreton Society, in which the football team was subjected to a thrilling surgical operation.

The following is the program:

- 1—Blow, Ye Winds, Heigh-Ho! Old English.
Sailor Chorus.
- 2—Three for Jack.....Squires
Mr. Williams.
- 3—Berceuse.....De Coster
Mr. Lyle.
- 4—Nancy Lee.....Stephen Adams
Sailor Chorus.
- 5—Humorous Reading
Prof Hawkins.
- 6—Andante Religious.....Thome
Prof. Hull.
- 7—The Pirate King.....Sullivan
Prof. Hawkins and Chorus.
- 8—Surgical Operation.....Medicus.
Prof. McMinn, Prof. Hawkins.
Messrs. Dann, Jones, Lewis.

Misses Belle and Ruth White spent the Thanksgiving vacation at their home in Salem.

Our foot-ball season for nineteen fourteen is over and in spite of the fact that we have had to be satisfied with the small end of the score in a large percentage of our games, we do not feel that our team has been a failure. There are a number of other things besides scoring ability that go to make up a victorious ball-team and it is gratifying to us as a school to feel that our eleven have both on and off the gridiron, conducted themselves like gentlemen.

The courtesy and kindness with which our boys have been received and treated during the time spent at other schools has been of the greatest and we feel that the warmth of feeling between ourselves and our opponents has been greatly increased. We bear no ill will toward any of the schools with whom we have contested but are glad to know our loss has been their gain, nevertheless we have the firm belief that the next time will be our turn to be victorious and it will be with but little regret that we shall turn the tables on our rivals.

The Team.

Benson, left tackle, "Q." Capt. Benson closes a fine football record at P. C. He has played in every game since he entered school, twenty in all, having missed but one quarter of one game. Always aggressive, he fights through thick and thin. His familiar "Let's Go! Let's Go!" will be missed in the future.

Colcord, quarter back, "Q." "Frankie" showed much improvement over last year especially in generalship. Best broken field runner on the team. Handles punts well. Needs more tackling practice. Good forward passer and punter.

Dann, left guard, "Q". Much improved over last, but needs to develop a more consistently aggressive style of play, and to get lower in the line. Easily boots the ball a clean fifty yards on kickoff. Needs more speed.

Edwards, center "Q". "Plute" developed into a more accurate passer than last year. Made practically no fumbles. Needs more speed. Strong on defense. Never gives up.

George, right half back, "Q". Hinshaw, left half back, "Q". First year of football. Most valuable man on squad for versatility. Could play left end, either half back, or quarter back as needed. In his one game as quarter showed good head work. Too light for line plunging. Fast on end runs.

Jones, right end "Q." "Chaucer's" one strong point is receiving forward passes. Needs to gain speed and to tackle lower.

Miles, right tackle, "Q". Heaviest man on team. Good at opening holes in the line. Better on offense than defense. Aggressive. Handicapped by illness during part of season.

Replogle, full back, "Q". "Rep" was the most consistent ground gainer on line plunges. Always aggressive. Hardest tackler on team. Good forward passer. Needs a little more speed.

Bates, sub. "Hawkshaw" made up in aggressiveness for his lack of weight and experience. Always ready to fill a vacancy at guard or center. Needs more speed.

Butt, right end. "The Colonel" did not join the squad till the middle of the season. Sure tackler. Good at breaking up interference.

Elliott, sub. Could not be with squad during entire season. First year. Aggressive, but shows lack of experience.

Guyer, left half back. "Topsy" could not be with team regularly through the season. Carries ball well on end runs but hits the line too high. Handicapped by lack of practice.

Haworth, right guard. Lost his "Q" through illness. Steady and reliable. Not spectacular, but always "playing ball." Last year on team.

Keeney, sub. Prevented from playing in last games by injuries. Needs more aggressiveness and more confidence in himself.

Pickett, sub. Always ready to take a place at guard or tackle. Lacks speed. Did not miss a single night's practice during season. Last year with team.

Sanders, left end. First year. Showed up well on offense, but weaker on defense through inexperience. Tackles well. Needs more speed.

Others who turned out for part or all of the season were: Thompson, Vestal, A Haworth, Walton, Tucker, P. Elliott and Ball. These helped to furnish opposition for the 'Varsity without having the incentive which the latter had of playing in match games. Thanks are also due to Pres. Pennington, Prof. Marshall and Elliott, '14, for their assistance.

THE SEASON.

Considered from the standpoint of scores the season was anything but a success. However, upon reflection, some bright spots appear. The team rounded into fair condition early in the season, the first three games being the best exhibitions. The third game, that against Willamette, was the high water mark of the season.

The temporary loss of Colcord from the team the week of the Albany game seemed to start a slump which nothing could stop. This assisted by a number of injuries made the latter part of the season rather disastrous. While no serious injuries were sustained, many sprains and bruises at critical times tended to derange team work. This was especially noticeable in the last game of the season against Pacific University.

The men played hard even in the face of crushing defeat, and earned a reputation for good, clean sportsmanship. As all the games but one were away from home, P. C. played the role of guest more than that of host. The team appreciate greatly the universal hospitality which was extended by its opponents. Five of the six games played were against teams representing schools much larger than our own. The fact that but two regular places become vacant by graduation augurs well for the future. The remaining 'varsity men will furnish an excellent nucleus for a strong team next year.

The boys are showing considerable interest in literary work
and, now that the football season
is over, the attendance will likely increase. Last week it was decided to change the time of
meeting to an afternoon, as soon
as the schedule of basketball
practise can be arranged.

Meade G. Elliott was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy made by Harold Hinshaw's resignation.

Next week the program takes a journalistic turn. Various sections of the magazines are to be presented and discussed by members who are enimently qualified to handle their subjects. A good, live meeting is insured.
